R.J. "Bud" Damiano (N.J. Lic No. 3869)

In 1932 Ralph and Marie Damiano opened their home to the community of Long Branch. The Dutch Colonial style home was built in the 1890's and purchased by the family in 1931. It was their hope that they could give the people of the area one of the most modern and complete homes of its kind, and they did. Ralph and Marie's involvement in their community helped them to understand the needs of their friends and neighbors. Through the years, trusting relationships have been created which have lasted for generations and for that we are grateful. Now, under the direction and management of the third generation, the tradition of community involvement continues. At the Damiano Funeral Home, we take special pride in knowing that as a family, our service to you embodies dignity and sympathetic understanding, which relieves the family of all the minute details at their time of bereavement. No matter how small or how large a funeral, the Damiano Funeral Home is prepared to handle your needs in the most satisfactory and conscientious manner.

PROFESSIONAL SERVICES OF FUNERAL DIRECTOR AND STAFF

Celebrant Services

As more people search for a funeral ceremony that reflects personal uniqueness and expresses depth and universality of meaning, our funeral home provides the services of a “Certified Funeral Celebrant.” Certified Celebrants are specially trained to conduct personal services for families at the time of death.

This service is an ideal option for those not affiliated with a Church or who do not wish to have a traditional funeral service. Our Certified Celebrant can even incorporate their work with your clergy’s efforts to create this meaningful tribute which can make the difference between a funeral and a celebration of the uniqueness of the life lived.

Certified Celebrants will speak with family members as they share stories and memories of the life of the deceased. Through our many resources for readings, music and other special touches, we can transform your memories into a meaningful remembrance.

- Celebrant Service . . . . . $300
(Includes family consultation, service in the funeral home and concluding remarks at the place of committal if scheduled immediately following the service)
- Multi-day/location Celebrant Service . . . . . $450
(Includes family consultation, service in the funeral home and concluding remarks at the place of committal, scheduled at another time)

Cash Disbursements

ADDITIONAL EXPENSES

Arranging the funeral ceremony and committal often requires the funeral home to pay others on your behalf. We do not charge for this service. An example of the people who may expect payment in advance include the cemetery, church/synagogue or clergy. Often the timing of the funeral arrangements - hour, date, or holidays - may make it necessary for us to estimate what advances you want us to make on your behalf.

This list does not include prices for certain items that you may ask us to buy for you, such as cemetery or crematory services, flowers, and newspaper notices. The prices for those items will be shown on your bill or the statement describing the funeral goods and services you selected.

Example of Known Disbursements:

- Pallbearers . . . . . each $50

Consumer Protection Information: There are some monument/memorial dealers who, shortly after burial, contact the family and claim to represent the cemetery or the funeral home. These persons will often attempt to sell a monument to a family, receive payment, and fail to deliver, or suggest that there are certain requirements for monumentation and that monuments must be placed within a certain period of time. There are no such regulations requiring you to erect a monument or inscribe an existing one.

OUTER BURIAL CONTAINER PRICE LIST (VAULTS)

In most areas of the country, state or local law does not require that you buy a container to surround the casket in the grave. However, many cemeteries require that you have such a container so that the grave will not sink in. Either a burial vault or a grave liner will satisfy these requirements.
